U.S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

May 6, 1985

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

MAIN STREET SECURITIES, INC. AND MARK K. CHRISTIANSEN SANCTIONED

The Commission entered an Order Making Findings and Imposing Remedial Sanctions against Main Street Securities, Inc., a registered Salt Lake City, Utah broker-dealer, and Mark K. Christiansen, a principal and the president of Main Street. The Commission accepted an Offer of Settlement submitted jointly by Main Street and Christiansen.

In their Offer, without admitting or denying the allegations contained in the Order for Proceedings, Main Street and Christiansen consented to an Order Making Findings that they wilfully violated: the registration provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 when they unlawfully offered and sold stock of controlling persons without conducting a reasonable inquiry as to the source and trading status of the stock; and the antifraud provisions of the Securities Act and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 by charging customers excessive markups and unfair prices in a stock in which they dominated and controlled the market. The Order, among other things, suspends Christiansen from association with any broker-dealer for 20 days and censures and limits the business activities of Main Street for specified periods of time. (Rel. 34-21984)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

SUIT FILED AGAINST ZARCON CORPORATION AND CHARLES E. KIMBLE

The Commission filed, on May 2, a complaint for permanent injunction in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California against Zarcon Corporation, of Berkeley, California, and its president and founder, Charles E. Kimble of Vallejo, California. In its complaint, the Commission alleged that Zarcon and Kimble violated the antifraud and registration provisions of the securities laws. Kimble consented to the injunction without admitting or denying the Commission's allegations. The case remains pending as to Zarcon.

The complaint alleged, among other things, that Zarcon and Kimble made false and misleading statements in an offering circular, two prospectuses and a registration statement filed with the Commission in late 1983, concerning, among other things, the underwriting of Zarcon's proposed initial public offering, and the research activities and financial condition of Zarcon. The Commission also alleges that Zarcon and Kimble falsely represented that the financial statements included in the registration statement were audited. (SEC v. Zarcon Corporation and Charles Kimble, Civil Action No. C85-3219 [TEH], NDCA, May 2, 1985). (LR-10741)
