

Paul Boyle

Paul Boyle is the Chief Executive of the Financial Reporting Council. The FRC aims to promote confidence in corporate reporting and governance. Its responsibilities include setting and enforcing accounting and auditing standards, setting actuaries standards and overseeing the regulatory activities of the accounting and actuarial professional bodies.

Paul is the Chairman of the International Forum of Independent Audit Regulators, having been appointed as its first Vice-Chair in September 2006.

Previously Paul was the Chief Operating Officer of the Financial Services Authority.

Paul was also with Cadbury Schweppes for 8 years, including a spell as Group Financial Controller and latterly as a Director of Cadbury Limited, with responsibility for Finance, Information Technology, Purchasing and Cocoa Buying.

He trained with Coopers & Lybrand, and spent 8 years with the firm including 2 years in Turkey. His first job in industry was with WH Smith Group plc.