

James Cinquegrana
GE

James Cinquegrana is an IT Team Leader currently responsible for supporting several finance teams at GE including Corporate Accounting, Capital Markets, and Corporate Insurance. His international team implements financial systems and solutions as well as supports government reporting. Included in this is the support of the XBRL filing of GE's financial statements. James has over 22 years experience in Information Technology, the majority of which involving IT Finance.